

Privacy policy Earz

This privacy policy is applicable to the services of Soundsupply, concerning Earz. By making use of Earz you agree to the terms and conditions of this privacy policy. Soundsupply respects the privacy of all users of her website and apps and ensures that all personal information that you provide us with is handled with confidentiality.

Usage of our services

When you sign up for one of our services, we ask you to provide us with personal data. This information is used to facilitate the execution of that service. The data will be stored in the private secure servers of Soundsupply or in those of a third party. We shall not combine this information with other personal data available to us.

Communication

When you send us an e-mail or other type of message, we may save that message and/or message thread. Sometimes we may ask of you to provide us with certain personal information which is relevant to that particular situation. This makes it possible to process your questions and respond to your requests. The data will be stored in the private secure servers of Soundsupply or in those of a third party. We shall not combine this information with other personal data available to us.

Purposes

We shall not collect or use personal data for different purposes than those described in this privacy policy, unless we obtained your permission for such usage in advance.

Third parties

The personal data shall not be shared with third parties. In some cases the data may be shared internally. Our employees are obliged to respect the confidentiality of your information.
